

OBITUARIES

FORMER BROOKLYN RESIDENT

Marilyn E. Brannian, 66

Marilyn E. Brannian, age 66, of Amana, formerly of Brooklyn, died Wednesday, Oct. 7, 2015 at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics. Funeral Service was held Monday, Oct. 12, Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn with Rev. Brent de Silva officiating. Burial was in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, Brooklyn. The family received friends on Monday at Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn. A memorial fund has been established.

Marilyn is survived by cousins, including Laurel Seeley of Huntsville, Mo., Roger Brannian (Deb) of Ankeny, and John Brannian (Anita) of Sioux Falls, S.D. She was preceded in death by her father Daryl Brannian in 1970, her mother Valda Connell in 2006, and a dear friend Ed Kline in 2006.

Marilyn Elaine Brannian was born July 21, 1949 in Grinnell, the daughter of Daryl and Valda Fullerton Brannian. She was raised in the Brooklyn area and graduated from BGM High School with the Class of 1967. Marilyn attended Paris Academy of Beauty in Cedar Rapids, receiving her cosmetology license. She worked for several years in Grinnell fixing hair. She also worked at Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn for 12 years as a nurses aide. She received training as an activity coordinator at DMACC and Kirkwood. While residing at Hillside Estates, Marilyn also took classes through Kirkwood. She had been a member of the Methodist Church in Grinnell. Most recently Marilyn lived at Lakeview Village in Amana, and enjoyed helping out at Colonial Manor, reading and interacting with the residents. She was always intrigued by the medical field and loved reading medical journals.

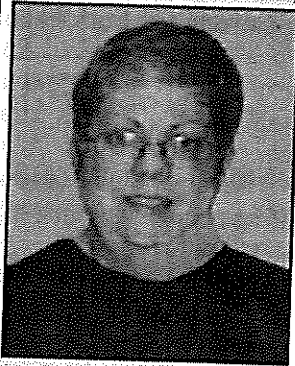

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com.

#23646

Brannian Marilyn E

MARILYN ELAINE BRANNIAN

Marilyn E. Brannian, age 66, of Amana, formerly of Brooklyn, died Wednesday, October 7, 2015 at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics. Funeral services were held Monday, October 12, 2015, Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn with Rev. Brent de Silva officiating. Burial was in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, Brooklyn. A memorial fund has been established.

Marilyn is survived by cousins, including

Laurel Seeley of Huntsville, Missouri, Roger Brannian (Deb) of Ankeny, and John Brannian (Anita) of Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

She was preceded in death by her father Daryl Brannian in 1970, her mother Valda Connell in 2006, and a dear friend Ed Kline in 2006.

Marilyn Elaine Brannian was born July 21, 1949 in Grinnell, the daughter of Daryl and Valda Fullerton Brannian. She was raised in the Brooklyn area and graduated from BGM High School with the Class of 1967. Marilyn attended Paris Academy of Beauty in Cedar Rapids, receiving her cosmetology license. She worked for several years in Grinnell fixing hair. She also worked at Brookhaven Nursing Home for 12 years as a nurses aide. She received training as an activity coordinator at DMACC and Kirkwood. While residing at Hillside Estates, Marilyn also took classes through Kirkwood. She had been a member of the Methodist Church in Grinnell. Most recently Marilyn lived at Lakeview Village in Amana, and enjoyed helping out at Colonial Manor, reading and interacting with the residents. She was always intrigued by the medical field and loved reading medical journals.

5708-22-01 record

Marilyn E. Brannian

Marilyn E. Brannian, 66, died Wednesday, Oct. 7, 2015, at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics.

A funeral service was held at 11 a.m. Monday, Oct. 12, at Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn, with the Rev. Brent de Silva officiating. Burial will be in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, Brooklyn. A memorial fund has been established.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com.

Marilyn Elaine Brannian was born July 21, 1949, in Grinnell, the daughter of Daryl and Valda Fullerton Brannian. She was raised in the Brooklyn area and graduated from BGM High School with the Class of 1967. She attended Paris Academy of Beauty in Cedar Rapids, receiving her cosmetology license. She worked for several years in Grinnell fixing hair. She also worked at Brookhaven Nursing Home, Brooklyn, for 12 years as a nurses aide. She received training as an activity coordinator at DMACC and Kirkwood. While residing at Hillside Estates, she also took classes through Kirkwood.

She had been a member of the Methodist Church in Grinnell. Most recently Marilyn lived at Lakeview Village in Amana, and enjoyed helping out at Colonial Manor, reading and interacting with the residents. She was always intrigued by the medical field and loved reading medical journals.

She was preceded in death by her father Daryl Brannian in 1970, her mother Valda Connell in 2006, and a dear friend Ed Kline in 2006.

617-R 10-12-2015