

Doyle Weaver GH-R 2-4-2016

Doyle Weaver, 94, of rural Newburg, died January 30, 2016, at his home.

Funeral services are scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, February 6, at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with Pastor Walt Claussen officiating. Organist will be Jean Carnahan. Pallbearers will be Doyl Altemeier, Bart Anderson, Gary Halverson, Ron Hendrickson, Bill Mason, Jeremy McIlrath, Stan McIlrath, David Weaver and Todd Weaver. Burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery near Newburg.

Doyle Weaver

Doyle Weaver, 94, of rural Newburg, died Jan. 30, 2016, at his home.

Funeral services are scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 6, at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell. Burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery near Newburg.

Visitation will be held from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Friday at the funeral home with the family present from 5 to 7 Friday evening.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Newburg-Chester Church. GH-R 2-1-2016

Visitation will be held from 12:00 noon to 7:00 p.m. Friday at the funeral home with the family present from 5:00 to 7:00 Friday evening.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Newburg-Chester Church.

Doyle was born August 24, 1921, on the family farm near Newburg, the son of Howard and Lottie Adams Weaver. He was raised in the Newburg and Gilman areas and was a 1940 graduate of Gilman High School. While in high school, he excelled in basketball.

On February 16, 1942, he was united in marriage with Norma Cochran, in Lancaster, Missouri. The couple farmed southwest of Newburg, where he lived on the same farm his entire life. Running a successful farm operation and raising his family were his focal points in life.

Doyle was a member of the Newburg-Chester Church, the Farm Bureau and Ducks Unlimited. He held a passion for hunting ducks, turkey and pheasants and he always looked forward to his fishing trips to Minnesota and Canada. He enjoyed watching and rooting for both the Iowa Hawkeyes and Iowa State Cyclones.

Survivors include two sons, George (Janet) Weaver of Tallahassee, Florida, and Clark (Karen) Weaver of Grinnell; one brother, Don (Doris) Weaver of Grinnell; one sister, Viola Sleenwenhoek of Grinnell; five grandchildren, Mark T. Weaver, Michelle Weaver, Melanie (Jamie) Smith, Daniel Weaver and Lindsay Weaver; two great-grandchildren, Jackson and Maggie Smith; and his close friend, Deloris Matney of Gladbrook. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Norma in 1997; and one brother, Delbert Weaver.

NEWBURG RESIDENT

Doyle Weaver, 94

PCCR 2-10-2016

Doyle Weaver, 94, of rural Newburg, died January 30, 2016, at his home.

Funeral services were held Saturday, February 6, at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with Pastor Walt Claussen officiating. Organist was Jean Carnahan. Pallbearers were Doyl Altemeier, Bart Anderson, Gary Halverson, Ron Hendrickson, Bill Mason, Jeremy McIlrath, Stan McIlrath, David Weaver and Todd Weaver. Burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery near Newburg.

Visitation was held Friday at the funeral home with the family present Friday evening.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Newburg-Chester Church.

Doyle was born August 24, 1921, on the family farm near Newburg, the son of Howard and Lottie Adams Weaver. He was raised in the Newburg and Gilman areas and was a 1940 graduate of Gilman High School. While in high school, he excelled in basketball.

On February 16, 1942, he was united in marriage with Norma Cochran, in Lancaster, Missouri. The couple farmed southwest of Newburg, where he lived on the same farm his entire life. Running a successful farm operation and raising his family were his focal points in life.

Doyle was a member of the Newburg-Chester Church, the Farm Bureau and Ducks Unlimited. He held a passion for hunting ducks, turkey and pheasants and he always looked forward to his fishing trips to Minnesota and Canada. He enjoyed watching and rooting for both the Iowa Hawkeyes and Iowa State Cyclones.

Survivors include two sons, Doyle

sons, George (Janet) Weaver of Tallahassee, Florida and Clark (Karen) Weaver of Grinnell; one brother, Don (Doris) Weaver of Grinnell; one sister, Viola Sleenwenhoek of Grinnell; five grandchildren, Mark T. Weaver, Michelle Weaver, Melanie (Jamie) Smith, Daniel Weaver and Lindsay Weaver; two great-grandchildren, Jackson and Maggie Smith; and his close friend, Deloris Matney of Gladbrook. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Norma in 1997 and one brother, Delbert Weaver.