

FORMER BROOKLYN RESIDENT

Roman Miller

PCCR

5-25-2016

Roman Miller passed away Saturday, May 21, 2016 at the Brooklyn Community Estates in Brooklyn, Iowa.

A visitation will be held Saturday, June 4 from 10-11:30 a.m. at the Peterseim Funeral Home.

Private graveside services will be in the Sharon Hill Cemetery, Kalona.

Roman I. Miller was born January 29, 1942 in Kalona, the son of Ira and Fannie (Yoder) Miller. Roman and Linda Swartzendruber were married in the Kalona United Methodist Church on October 22, 1961.

The couple lived and worked at the Oakdale Campus in the dairy and kitchen for 10 years. After that time Roman was employed on several farms in Ladora and Guernsey and later at the Brooklyn Elevator until retirement.

Survivors are his wife, Linda and brothers; Jonas (Lillian) Miller of Realto, California, Chris (Betty) Williamsburg, Kentucky, Chet (Katie) Miller, Marion, Iowa and Mary Ann Ferguson (Scott) Moravian Falls, North Carolina. Also surviving Linda's family, Randy (Joyce) Swartzendruber of Kalona, Sue (Paul) Ross, Casa Grande, AZ, Bill (Salinda) Swartzendruber, Bellvue, NE, Dave (Deb) Swartzendruber, Riverside, IA, Patty Swartzendruber, Iowa City and Kevin (Carol) Swartzendruber, Kalona. A number of nieces and nephews survive.

Preceding Roman in death were his parents, a sister Irene Schultz and brother Oba Miller.

A memorial fund has been established for the Deep River Fire Dept, the Deep River Responders, or Essence of Life Hospice.

Charitable donations may be made in Roman's memory to the following organizations:

Deep River Fire Dept.
Deep River, Iowa
Deep River Responders
Deep River, Iowa
Essence of Life Hospice