Zinia M. Phillips, 76, of Grinnell, died on Wednesday, May 18, 2016, at Brooklyn Community Estates.

A memorial service was held Monday, May 23, at the Church of Latter Day Saints in Newton.

Burial will be in Westfield Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to the Zinia M. Phillips Memorial Fund and sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell, Iowa 50112.

Zinia was born on Nov. 11, 1939, the daughter of Charles Sr. and Mirza Smith Wilson in Mississippi. She married Charles Phillips, and the couple lived in several places in Iowa before moving to Arizona.

She enjoyed genealogy, puzzles, angels, birds and antique shopping, and was very involved with her church until recently when her health started to fail.

Zinia is survived by her children, Anita Kirkman of Brooklyn, Chuck Kirkman of Oregon and Rick Kirkman of Arizona; seven grandchildren; several great grandchildren; her step-daughters, Jeannie Robbins, Cathy Kinkade, Sherri Rockwell and Debbie Faulker; eleven step grandchildren; her siblings; Charles Wilson of Rock Island, Ill., Maurice Wilson of Michigan, Ronnie Wilson of Michigan, Marvin Wilson of Grinnell, Rollie Wilson of Illinois, Ken Wilson of LeGrand and Francis Roland of Metrose, Iowa; and her beloved cat, Midnight.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one son, Jack, one grandson and one step grandchild.
