Edna I. Badger 9-12-2016

Edna I. Badger, 94, of Fort Dodge and formerly of Malcom, died Wednesday, Sept. 7, 2016, at the Bickford Cottages in Fort Dodge.

A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 17, at Ivy Hill Cemetery near Malcom with Barbara Stumbo, chaplain of Bickford Cottages, officiating. The family will greet family and friends following the service at the Malcom American Legion Hall.

Memorials may be directed to the American Alzheimer's Association and sent in care of Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell, Iowa 50112.

Edna was born on January 18, 1922, in Malcom, to Irving and Loda Carpenter Baltisberger. She was raised in Malcom and graduated with the Class of 1940 from Malcom High School.

On June 4, 1945, she married Howard "Bud" Badger in Malcom. She was a mother of three children and a dedicated wife and partner in the farm operation. The couple operated a farm near Malcom and later in the Des Moines area. From 1964 to 1984, the family resided in Fort Dodge and Roland. She worked for Iowa State University during that period.

Edna and Howard enjoyed wintering in Texas following their retirement. She enjoyed raising flowers, gardening, camping and cooking.

Survivors include her children, Irlene Larson of Badger, Iowa, Irvy Badger of Moorland, Iowa, and Scott Badger of Exira, Iowa; eight grandchildren; and ten great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; two brothers, Ronald and Wilbur Baltisberger; and two sisters, Odessa Douglass and Lois Van Gorp.
