

FORMER CHELSEA RESIDENT

Terri Lynn Clark, 56

PCCR 8-10-2016

Terri Lynn Clark, 56, Centerville, formerly of Chelsea, passed away

Wednesday, Aug. 3, 2016, at Mercy Medical Center in Centerville.

Funeral services were Sunday, Aug. 7, 2016, at Lange Funeral Home and Crematory in Centerville with Pastor Kay Singley officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorials have been established to the Centerville Mat Club and may be mailed to Lange Funeral Home, 1900 South 18th Street, Centerville, IA 52544. Condolences may be shared online at www.langefh.com.

She was born on Oct. 2, 1959, the daughter of R.D. and Virginia (Hilligas) McFatrige. She was united in marriage to Larry "Shorty" Clark, and from this union, two children were born, Gary Wayne and Larry Dean. They spent almost 25 years together, until their divorce in 2007.

Terri was a devoted and loving mother. She enjoyed watching her children participate in extracurricular activities, such as the county fair with the kid's 4H projects, wrestling, as well as many other sports and activities.

She worked in food service at Howar Junior High in Centerville for many years. She later worked at Barker's for a couple of years. For the last year, she operated a can redemption center in Moravia called, "Clark's Redemption Center."

Terri is survived by her two children, Gary (Amanda) Clark, Lohrville, and Larry Clark Numa; five siblings, Robert McFatrige, Linda Bracy, Richard McFatrige, Sharon Siebels and Patricia McFatrige.

She was preceded in death by her parents, R.D. and Virginia McFatrige; her late husband, Larry "Shorty" Clark; and a brother-in-law, David Bracy.
