Janice Ann Latham was born the daughter of Lyle John and Dorothy (Versendaal) Latham on September 8, 1951, at the Mahaska Hospital in Oskaloosa, Iowa.

She was raised in Sully and Grinnell, where she graduated with the Grinnell High School class of 1969.

Janice was united in marriage to Harry A. Reimers on October 23, 1970, at the Trinity Lutheran Church north of Malcom, Iowa.

The couple lived in the Brooklyn and Grinnell area respectively and were blessed with two sons, Lance and Chad.

Janice worked for the Grinnell State Bank before she began her long-time career of 30 years at GTE (General Telephone).

She was a member of the Iowa Women's TTT Club and the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Grinnell, where she taught Sunday school.

Janice's family was her life. She dearly loved her grandchildren and cherished her time with them.

Janice loved to create experiences in life and one of her favorites was going to the Rose Bowl with Chad and her nephews.

Much of her life was devoted to bettering the lives of others through her tangible and intangible acts of generosity.

She will be remembered for her kind, gentle way, her ability to tell stories and jokes to make people laugh, her organization skills and hard work ethic, and for her loving smile.

Janice is survived by her son, Chad (Erica) Reimers of Coralville, Iowa; four grandchildren, Cameron, Harrison, Maryn and Emerson Reimers of Coralville; parents, John and Dorothy Latham of Grinnell; siblings, Dianna (Darlo) Kelting of Grinnell, David (Annette) Latham of Grinnell, and Carol (Jeff) Oliver of Grinnell; sister-in-law, Teresa Latham of Lynnyville, Iowa; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Reimers; son, Lance Reimers; and siblings, Judy Latham and Allen Latham.
