

Willis Wayne Montgomery ^{CH-R} 9-15-2016

Willis Wayne Montgomery, age 86, of Grinnell, died Monday, September 12, 2016, at the Mayflower Care Center in Grinnell. Funeral Services: 10:30 a.m., Saturday, September 17, 2016, at the First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, with Pastor John Reynolds officiating. Burial will be in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. Visitation: 5 to 7 p.m., Friday, September 16, 2016, at Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Memorials may be contributed to the First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn.

Willis was survived by his wife Delores; three children Scott (Michele Eenens) Montgomery of Brussels, Belgium, Kelly (Nancy) Montgomery of Ames, and Kyle (Marna) Montgomery of Brooklyn; six grandchildren Kirk (Miriam) Montgomery, Ryan (Emily Heid) Montgomery, Shannon (Ricardo) Viana, Logan, Jordan and Kali Montgomery; three great-grandchildren Leah Montgomery and Victoria and Leonardo Viana; four siblings Gene (Elaine) Montgomery of Chicago, Ill., Ruth Schweibert, of Hiawatha, Joyce Hoskins, of Crescent, Okla., and Robert (Dianne) Montgomery, of Nipomo, Calif. He was preceded in death by his parents and a daughter-in-law, Vicki Worley Montgomery.

Willis Montgomery was born April 23, 1930, in Grinnell, the son of Raymond and Sara Ladd Montgomery. He graduated in 1947 from the Brooklyn High School. He was drafted into the United States Marine Corps from 1951-1953, serving in the Korean War. Willis was united in marriage to Delores McWilliams on February 19, 1952, in Guernsey, Iowa. He began farming with his dad following high school and continued to farm for fifty plus years. After farming, he worked at I-80 and later the Tanger Outlet Mall in Williamsburg. Willis served on the BGM School Board for six years and one term as president. He was a member of the Farm Bureau and the First Presbyterian Church where he held about every office and taught Sunday School. Faith and family were very important to Willis. He enjoyed crossword puzzles, tearing down machinery, shelling walnuts in the fall and most of all supporting and attending his grandchildren's activities.
