Record 12-22-2016

Joyce Flippin, 65 of Waukee, and formerly of Montezuma, died Dec. 10, at Taylor House Hospice. Services will be held on Saturday Dec. 17, 2016 at the Holland-Coble Funeral Home, in Montezuma. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Joyce Flippin Memorial Fund.

Joyce Ellen Flippin, the daughter of William and Virginia (Kline) Douglass was born on Sept. 5, 1951 in Grinnell. She graduated from Papillion High School. She attended Wayne State College for one year then went on to Nursing School in Omaha. After college, she moved to Alaska, where she spent 18 years raising her children and spending time in the outdoors. In 1994, Joyce returned to the Midwest and made her home in Montezuma, IA where her parents lived. She spent over 17 years working as a nurse at Brookhaven Nursing Home. During her free time, she loved working on her crafts, gardening, baking and canning, and spending time with her family.

Left to cherish her memory are two sons, Derrick (Melissa) Flippin of West Des Moines; Jarred Flippin of Ankeny; four grandchildren, Kaylee and Emma Flippin, and Addison and Gabriel Flippin; her father, William Douglass of Montezuma; her sister, Susan Douglass of Altoona; and a brother Robert Douglass and special friend Ginger of Barnes City.

Joyce was preceded in death by her mother, Virginia Douglass.
