

JoAnn I. Paulson BH-R

11-24-28-2016
JoAnn I. Paulson, 60, of Newton died Sunday, Nov. 20, 2016, at her home. A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 29, at the Kellogg Christian Church. The family will greet friends from 1 p.m. until the time of service at the church. Memorials to the Kellogg Christian Church may be left at the church the day of the service or at the Wallace Family Funeral Home and Crematory.

JoAnn, the daughter of Robert H. and Arlene McConeghey Paulson, was born on April 2, 1956, in Newton. She grew up on the family farm by Kellogg and graduated from Newton High School in 1974. JoAnn was a Candy Stripper at Skiff Medical Center and was recognized for having the most volunteer hours of anyone at the time. She then went on to work as a nurse's aide at both Skiff and the Jasper County Care Facility. In the mid 1990s, JoAnn and her family moved into Newton. JoAnn was a member of the Kellogg Christian Church. She enjoyed trips to Branson, Mo., and attending Daniel O'Donnell concerts. JoAnn had most recently been selling Avon.

She is survived by her sister, Marilyn Paulson of Newton, and other relations.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her four-legged "children" Teenie and Sara, who died recently.
