Catherine "Ruth" Price, 97

On March 22, 1945, she was united in marriage with Melvin Price at the United Methodist Church in Brooklyn. A union of 58 years! She retired from teaching her wedding and began working together with her husband, for many years, operating a successful farm operation. During this time she was very active with the Farm Bureau.

Ruth was a member of the Victor United Methodist Church, where she volunteered for many activities. She was an active member of the Victor American Legion Auxiliary, a 4-H leader and a volunteer at the HLV School District. She was a strong advocate of a child's education. She loved flowers, gardening and canning her produce. She was very talented in many of the things she enjoyed doing.

She is survived by her daughter, Colleen Van Zee of Holiday Lake, near Brooklyn; her grandson, Adam (Amber) Nowotny of Cedar Rapids; four great-grandchildren, Damien, Aiden, Lily and Osiris Nowotny; and sister, Ruby Pelot of Bellview, Florida. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ray and Mae Robey; her husband, Melvin; her brother, Ross Robey; and most recently, her son-in-law, Eric Van Zee on February 17, 2017.
