Vern was born on April 15, 1934, near Libertyville, Iowa to Vernon and Esther Workman Glotfelty. Vern grew up on the family farm and later graduated with the Class of 1952 from Fairfield High School.

On April 3, 1954, he was united in marriage to Joanne Carol Webb of Batavia, Iowa and they raised eight children.

The couple lived in rural Fairfield before moving to Marengo in 1959. In 1967, the family moved to rural Victor and later into the community of Victor. He was employed at Amana Refrigeration for 37 years and retired in 1996.

Vern was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, brother, son, uncle, cousin and friend who will be dearly missed by all. He shared a love of traveling with his wife Joanne. He also enjoyed listening to country music, watching sports, attending family music and sporting events, the Old Threshers Reunion and the Iowa State Fair. He enjoyed visiting with people.....never meeting a stranger. Vern was a proud member of the Masonic Lodge, the Victor United Methodist Church and served his country in the Iowa National Guard for many years. Most of all, he was proud of his family and loved spending time with them.

Survivors include his children, Deb (Danny) Davis of Colorado Springs, Colorado, Tammy (Dennis) Hull of Cedar Rapids, Tim (Janet) Glotfelty of Victor, Nathan (Marla) Glotfelty of Kellogg, Chris (Damon) Daniels of Huntsville, Alabama and Jill (Dan) Dreyer of Muscatine; 15 grandchildren; 21 great grandchildren; sisters-in-law, Lavina Glotfelty of Davenport, Betty (Harry) Durlinger of Green-top, Missouri, Patti (Bob) Whitham of Madrid and Nancy Webb of Ottumwa; brother-in-law, James Webb of Andover, Minnesota; several cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by both of his parents; his loving wife of 55 years, Joanne; two sons, Mark and Michael Glotfelty; two brothers, Vernon Harold and Clarence Glotfelty; and two sisters, Carolyn Glotfelty and Mary Nelson.

Vern's family would like to thank the staff of Brooklyn Community Estate for their loving care.
