Michaelyn B. Miller, 66, passed away on July 24th, 2017. She died in the Hospice Care Unit at Mercy Hospital of Iowa City surrounded by her family. Known as the owner of “Cakes by Michaelyn,” she was more frequently and lovingly referenced as “The Cake Lady” throughout Eastern Iowa. She spread joy and love throughout the community with her rainbow cakes and generosity.

She will be deeply missed by her family and friends. Her husband of 48 years, Dale Miller (graduate of Grinnell High School) of Iowa City, Iowa, her daughter, Katherine Miller and daughter-in-law, Rachel English of Normandy Park, Wash., her brother, her sister, and many nieces and nephews will hold tightly to their precious and priceless memories. She is preceded in death by her father, Floyd McKenzie (Muskegon, Mich.), her father-in-law Dolph Miller (Grinnell, Iowa), her mother-in-law, Alberta Miller (Grinnell, Iowa), and her mother, Norma McKenzie Morton (Muskegon, Mich.).

Per her wishes, Michaelyn will be cremated and there will be no services. Your prayers, expressions of sympathy are deeply appreciated. Kindness extended through financial support to address expenses related to her medical care and burial may be sent to Lensing Funeral Home (605 Kirkwood Avenue, PO Box 167, Iowa City, IA 52244) in care of Michaelyn Miller Memorial or through youcaring.com/mm.
