DEATH CLAIMS JAMES HOCKETT.

Died at Home of His Daughter, Mrs. Morgan, Friday Morning — Body Taken to Earlham.

James Hockett died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Morgan, at 1337 Prince street, Friday, at 10 a. m., from a complication of diseases, after a sickness of only a few days. He had been in poor health for a long time.

Mr. Hockett was born in Henry county, Iowa, June 25, 1853. When a lad of twelve years, he moved with his people to Earlham, Iowa, and made his home there until last July when he came to live with his daughter here.

In 1876 he was married to Miss Anna Lippincott. She died twenty-six years ago. Four children survive their father. They are: Edgar Hockett of Omaha, Charles Hockett of California, Mrs. J. H. Morgan of Grinnell, and Mrs. Jessale Hester of Earlham.

Mr. Hockett was a life-long member of the Friends church.

The body was taken to Earlham Saturday morning. There was no funeral here, as Mrs. Morgan and children were all down with influenza.
