HARRY HUTCHINSON

Montezuma's Member of the S. A. T. C. at Ames Passes Away.

WAS YOUNG MAN WHO DID HIS FULL DUTY

Gave Life When But a Boy—Body is Buried at Montezuma.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.

Harry E. Hutchinson was born March 28, 1899, and passed away October 25, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months.

He was the son of Ben and Sadie Hutchinson, and was reared in Montezuma.

Harry graduated from the Montezuma high school with the class of 1917. He had plans for a college education but he chose to serve his country in the army of the United States on the outbreak of war.

He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from which he graduated in 1921, with the rank of second lieutenant in the Infantry. He served with the 14th Infantry in the Philippines and in the Indian Territory.