Howell Clark Lupton

The death of Howell Clark Lupton, a member of the Grinnell S. T. C., took place at the city hospital at 5:30 p. m. Sunday, from pneumonia.

The young man, who was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lupton of Toledo, Iowa, was born May 27, 1894, and remained at home until he entered the S. A. T. C. last September.

The parents arrived in Grinnell to see their son before he was sent away. The body was taken over to Toledo Monday.
