JoAnn Marie Bergman was born on Monday, October 16, 1933, in State Center, Iowa, to Dwight "Dude" and Bernice Harrendorf Bergman. She was raised on the family farm, attended rural school and graduated with the Class of 1951 from State Center High School. She also attended Grinnell College and Drake University.

On August 4, 1957, she was united in marriage to Lester "Sonny" Schneekloth in State Center and to this union was born two daughters, Linda and Brenda. The couple made their home in Malcom, where JoAnn worked for the Postal Service and retired as Postmaster after 40 years of service.

JoAnn was a member of the Malcom United Methodist Church and played the organ and piano for many church services, weddings and funerals. She was also an avid booster of the Iowa Athletic Department and was a member of the University of Iowa President's Club.

She enjoyed playing cards, listening to music, baking pies, dining out and attending her grandchildren's sporting, church and school activities. She also attended many St. Louis Cardinal baseball games and was a season ticket holder to Iowa Hawkeye football, men's and women's basketball, softball and wrestling events.

Survivors include her two daughters, Linda Miller and Brenda (Tim) McCulley, all of Urbandale; and two granddaughters, Lindsey (Seth) McClellan of Waukee and Tara McCulley of Urbandale.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; her son-in-law, Jack Miller; and one grandson, Matthew McCulley.
