

Hester Fleming, 73

Hester Fleming, 73, of Montezuma, died Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2005 at her home.

Her funeral service was held on Saturday, Dec. 17, at the Cornerstone Fellowship Baptist Church in Montezuma with Pastor Rick Ferrell officiating. Interment followed at Union Mills Cemetery. Harden Funeral Home of New Sharon was in charge of the arrangements.

Hester was born on January 7, 1932, at Forest Home, the daughter of R. Glenn and Leona Bunting Fleming. She was a 1949 graduate of Montezuma High School and retired from her position as head bookkeeper at Brownells in Montezuma after 46 years of service. She was a charter member of the Cornerstone Fellowship Baptist Church in Montezuma and a member of the Montezuma chapter of the D.A.R. She was an avid gardener and enjoyed flowers and playing the piano.

Her memory is honored by her companion, Charlie Williams of Deep River, and her many nieces and nephews, Robert E. Fleming, Gloria Jean (Fleming) and Tom Broers, Valerie (Fleming) and Carlos Cobos, Garry and Sherry Fleming, Charles and Terri Fleming, Norman and Nichole Fleming, David and Teresa Fleming, Steven and Liz Fleming, Ruth Fleming, Lorraine (Fleming) and Tom Breese, Mary Beth (Fleming) Wishmeyer, Melanie Fleming, and Deborah (Fleming) and Bill Coyle.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her three brothers, Robert, Wayne and Stuart Fleming and a niece-in-law, Betty Fleming.

Memorials in her name may be made to the Cornerstone Fellowship Baptist Church or to the Salvation Army.

NR - DECEMBER 21, 2005