C. Huizer

Memorials can be given to the Chase Huizer Memorial Scholarship Fund established to assist teens desiring to attend a Teens Encounter Christ weekend.

Chase Braden Huizer was the second of three sons that were born to Mark Vern and Vicky Lynn Jansen Huizer. He was born on Aug. 8, 1984, in Newton. Chase was baptized at the First Reformed Church in Sully. He attended Lynnville-Sully School, graduating with the Class of 2003. During high school, Chase was a member of the golf team, played football and was active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes organization. He was also an active participant in several Teens Encounter Christ weekends.

He attended Iowa State University for one semester studying business. He sought employment at various businesses and learned various trades including carpentering while working for Vander Linden Construction in Lynnville. Chase then continued his post-high school education via the computer on-line. This study was interrupted when he became an employee of the Pella Corporation in June of 2005.

Chase became a member of the Friends Church in Lynnville in 2004 where he was active in drama.

Those who will cherish his memory are his parents: Mark and Vicky Huizer of Lynnville; his two brothers: Tate Huizer and his wife, Melissa of Pella; Brett Huizer, a senior at Lynnville-Sully High School; two nieces: Brooklyn, age 2 and Ashton, 3 months old; his grandparents: Guy and Janet Jansen of Pella; and his aged step-great-grandmother, Henrietta Rolffs of Pella. Chase leaves a special friend, Sarah Ernst of Pella, along with several uncles and aunts.

Chase was preceded in death by his grandparents: Hubert and Joyce Huizer.
