

Roy C. Ferguson

Apr. 2, 1951 - Jan. 7, 2017

Roy Ferguson, 66 of New Sharon died Jan. 7. Services will be January 12 at 2 p.m. at Union Mill Christian Church. Visitation will be held one hour before the service. Burial will be in the Union Mills Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Roy's name to the Roy Ferguson Estate.

Roy C. Ferguson, the son of Earl and Audrey (Busby) Ferguson, was born April 2, 1951 in Union Township near New Sharon. He attended school at Lacey before graduating from North Mahaska High School in 1969.

Roy married Donna Bond on Oct. 2, 1970 at the Assembly of God Church in New Sharon. To this union one son was born, Todd. They later divorced.

Roy first farmed with his father before farming on his own. He also worked at Taintor COOP before working several years at Vermeer Manufacturing in Pella eventually retiring from there. Roy was very active with his son, Todd, coaching him in Little League for several years and was his 4-H Leader. As a kid, Roy was also involved in 4-H and enjoyed showing his Angus Cattle at the Mahaska County Fair and the Iowa State Fair.

His memory will be honored by his siblings, Peggy Heyveld of Burlington, Linda Ferguson of New Sharon, Ruth (Wayne) Hasley of Searsboro and Luann (Craig) Montgomery of New Sharon; a daughter-in-law, Carol Ferguson of Beatrice, Nebraska and several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Roy was preceded in death by his parents; his son, Todd Ferguson and a brother, David Ferguson.
