

George Francis Johnson
Mar. 25, 1955 - Feb. 6, 2018

George F. Johnson, 62, of Searsboro died Feb. 6, at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, Iowa City. As was his wish, his body has been cremated. Services were held Feb. 9 at Searsboro Community Church, Searsboro.

George Francis Johnson was born Mar. 25, 1955 to Delno and Nira Schneider Johnson Wilkinson at Denver, CO. George attended Lynnville-Sully High School and enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1972. He was a member of the inactive reserves for one year after being honorably discharged in 1975.

George was married to Patty Malloy before marrying Shelli Hicks on January 24, 1993 in Las Vegas. To this union their son, Skylar was born.

He began working for Sully Construction and also for Terry Stanek restoring cars after the service. He worked for Sully Construction for 41 years.. He enjoyed going to car shows and going to Good Guys in Des Moines. Family was important to George and Skylar was a big part of his life.

George was preceded in death by his father, Delno Johnson and his brother-in-law, Michael Ahrenstorff.

He is survived by his mother, Nira Johnson Wilkinson of Mountain Home, Ar., his son, Skylar Johnson of Searsboro, his brothers, Charles (Deb) Johnson of Sully and Michael (Jessann) Johnson of Lynnville; his sister, Charleen Ahrenstorff of Mountain Home, Ar., and many other friends and relatives.