GLADYS STOCKTON PILGRIM.

The following obituary is taken from the Stanberry, Mo., paper, and will be of interest to many Grinnell people. Mr. Pilgrim and his mother, Mrs. Will Pilgrim, have recently returned from Detroit.

Gladys Stockton Pilgrim was born August 21, 1893, at Stanberry, Mo., and died in Detroit, Michigan, July 25, 1919, aged 25 years, 11 months and 4 days.

She was married June 23, 1918, to Vernon M. Pilgrim, of Grinnell, Iowa.

She united with the Christian church at the age of 14 years and has been a faithful member of the church militant here on earth until she has been called to the church triumphant, which is without fault before the throne of God.

She was a graduate of the Stanberry High School, also a graduate of music under Professor Earnest, and an advanced pupil in voice and expression. She was also a graduate of the Gem City Business College. She accepted a position at Mercer, Mo., and after being employed there some time received a promotion and went to Grinnell, Iowa, later on to Detroit, Mich., where she lived until her death.

She was a member of the Earnest Concert Company of this city during her stay here, and the members of this company furnished the music for the funeral service.

Her life was one of activity and usefulness and her place will be greatly missed among her many friends as well as among her sorrowing family.

The funeral services were held from the home Monday, conducted by Rev. Morgan of the M. E. church, after which the remains were laid to rest in the High Ridge cemetery.
