Ladona Anderson, 92 of Montezuma, passed away April 22, at Montezuma Specialty Care.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. April 26, at Holland-Coble Funeral Home, Montezuma. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be in Jackson Township Cemetery in Montezuma. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Montezuma Volunteer Fire Department or the Montezuma Specialty Care.

Ladona Marlene Anderson, the daughter of Hefmon and Lydia (Schrader) Davis, was born May 31, 1925 in Hartwick. She was graduated from Montezuma High School in 1943. Ladona worked at the Brownell's Maid Rite where she met Lyle Anderson in 1945. They were united in marriage Aug. 3, 1946 at Grinnell United Methodist Church. To this union two sons were born, Bill and Danny. Ladona worked for Brownell's Industries before they purchased the men's clothing store in 1957 changing the name to Anderson Clothing. Ladona worked side by side with her husband until they sold the store to their son, Danny, in 1975. Ladona continued to work for Danny until he sold the store in 1980 when she retired.

She was very proud of her family and enjoyed her grandchildren and great grandchildren's activities and visits. She was an avid card player and looked forward to playing cards and dominoes at the Montezuma Country Club every Tuesday evening. She was a member of the Montezuma United Methodist Church, a neighbor card club, KYN Club and the Montezuma Country Club.

Ladona's memory will be honored by her sons, Bill Anderson of Urbandale and Danny (Therese) Anderson of Montezuma; four grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, many nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lyle Anderson, four sisters, LaVonne McCaulley, Virginia Johnston, Phyllis Osborn and Dema Hall.
