Carroll Thompson, 74, died Monday, June 18, 2018, in Kellogg.

Memorial services will be held at 1:30 p.m., Monday, June 25, at the Pence-Reese Funeral Home in Newton. The family will greet friends from 3 til 5 p.m. on Sunday, June 24, at the funeral home. Memorials may be designated to the Izaak Walton League or the St. Labre Indian School.

The son of Willard and Pauline Smith, Carroll was born Sept. 9, 1943 in Newton. He attended Newton schools and later served his country in the U.S. Navy. Following his time in the service, he worked as a journeyman electrician across the United States, Central America and Europe. He spent a few summers in Eagle, Alaska, while he was building a school and panning for gold. Carroll enjoyed arrowhead-hunting, fishing hunting and playing his guitar. Carroll was a long-time member of the Izaak Walton League and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

He is survived by his step daughter Heather McFadden of Grinnell; his brother, Perry Thompson of Newton; and many nieces and nephews.

Carroll was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Vernon Thompson; his sister, Rosalee Thompson; and a baby brother in infancy.
