Coleta K. Norris

Coleta K. Norris, 71, of Titusville, Fla., and formerly of Grinnell, died suddenly at her home in Titusville on July 29, 2018.

She was born on May 24, 1947 in Glendale, Calif., to Millard and Allene Spoon. After graduating from Birmingham High School in Van Nuys, Calif., she attended nearby Pierce College where she was recruited by Continental Airlines. She became a flight attendant, a career job she held until she retired. Her passions were golf and her beloved pets.

Coleta and her husband Richard (Dick), who died suddenly seven weeks after Coleta's death, were former longtime residents of Grinnell.

She is survived by her father and by her sister Vonnie Carlson, both of Paso Robles, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her mother.
