Kenneth Lee Scull, the son of Louis Scull, Jr. and Martina Hanson Scull, was born Jan. 27, 1940, in Lynnville and lived in Lynnville most of his life.

Ken married Darlene Cook on June 29, 1963, at the Little Brown Church in Nashua, and they had five children. Ken worked as a mason for Guerts and Schmidts Construction in Sully, and later as a finish painter at Parson's Mfg. in Newton. He also worked at Farm Hand and retired from Iowa Telecom in Grinnell. He was a member of the Lynnville Friends Church.

He was an outdoorsman who enjoyed fishing, hunting, and going to races in Knoxville Raceway, and he also loved telling stories. In the fall Ken enjoyed coon-hunting and sold his coon pelts to provide Christmas gifts for his children.

Ken is survived by his wife of 55 years, Darlene Scull of Lynnville; five children, Gregory Scull of Anniston, Ala., Kristine Potter of Marlboro, Mass., LeAnn Pederson of Grinnell, Stephanie Wilson of Grinnell, and Steven Scull of Lynnville; eight grandchildren; and one great grandchild.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Randy Scull; and a sister, Norma Blair.
