

Last Services for
Mrs. Peter Madill
Held in Gilman

Funeral services were held at the Gilman Community Church Monday at 4 p. m. for Mrs. Margaret J. Madill, who died at a hospital in Grinnell Saturday morning after being critically injured from a fall in her home earlier in the morning.

She was born in Ireland Sept. 20, 1866, and came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Paul to Scott Co., Iowa, on Nov. 10, 1867. Here they resided for seven years. They then located on a farm four miles west of Newburg, where she was united in marriage with Peter A. Madill, March 1, 1899.

After living in a number of communities they located in Grinnell. She was a very devoted member of the Methodist Church and Sunday school until her health failed. Her relatives and friends will remember her for her cheerful and sunny disposition, also for many kind deeds.

She is survived by her husband, two brothers, D. A. Paul of Gilman, and J. S. Paul of Laurel, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were in charge of Rev. W. B. Wilson. Music was by Mrs. Margery Bouma and Mrs. Roscoe Dempster.

Pall bearers were Joseph Paul, Robert Paul, Charles Cummings, Will Wylie, James Wylie and Will Wiseman G.H.R. 7-1-1943

Mrs. P. A. Madill G.H.R.
Dies as Result of Fall Downstairs

Mrs. P. A. Madill died in a local hospital at about 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning as a result of injuries received about 6 a. m. when she fell downstairs in her home at 924 Elm street.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. W. B. Wilson are being held this afternoon from the Congregational church in Gilman with burial in the Gilman cemetery.

5461-88-9