

Record 1-17-2019

Marengo High School in 1947.
Eleanor was united in marriage to Leroy E. Dietrich on Sept. 25, 1947.
To this union they were blessed with nine children. He died on Mar. 8, 1989. On Oct. 12, 1991, she was married to Gerald Wyant. He died on June 1, 2010. She was a member of the former Cornerstone Evangelical Free Church near Williamsburg.

Eleanor was a homemaker and avid gardener. After raising her children she enjoyed doing ceramics and continued to crochet many baby Afghans for her family and friends.

Eleanor passed away Saturday,
Jan. 5 at the English Valley Care Center in North English at the age of 90.

She is survived by her nine children, Dolores (Elmer) Grimm of North English, Esther (Myron) Lown of Vinton, Juanita (Mark) Sarver of Rensler New York, Ethel (Randy) Cronbaugh of Belle Plaine, Ronald (Paulette) of Marengo, Keith (Jeanne) of Williamsburg, Carl (special friend Pava) of Williamsburg, Arlene (Jerry) Warnick and Helen Warnick all of Victor; two step daughters, Vera (Gary) Worrall of Montezuma and Nancy (Eldon) Newberry of Grinnell; 21 grandchildren; 29 great grandchildren; three sisters, Helen Hartin of Williamsburg, Mary (Ray) Goldammer of Marengo and Alice Heitman of Williamsburg. She was preceded in death by her parents, both husbands, a brother Edgar Tompkins and a sister Lois Wallace.

Celebration of Life Service was held on Jan. 11 at the Harvest Baptist Church in Williamsburg. Burial was at Pilot Grove Cemetery near Williamsburg. Memorials are for Essence of Life Hospice.

Eleanor Dietrich Wyant
Nov. 17, 1928 - Jan. 5, 2019

Eleanor Dietrich Wyant was born Nov. 17, 1928, near Williamsburg, the daughter of Gordon and Blanche (Bell) Tompkins. She attended rural school and was graduated from