Patricia Gail Jordan Craver, the daughter of Clarence and Gladys (Masterson) Jordan, was born on December 28, 1940 in Montezuma. She was a 1959 graduate of Montezuma High School. On June 28, 1959, Patti was united in marriage to Arnie Craver at the Montezuma United Methodist Church. To this union three children were born: Kimberly Diane, David Dean and Kenneth Eugene. Patti worked part-time at the Davis Law Office in Montezuma while raising her children until her marriage. Kimberly was born. Patti was a wonderful homemaker and also kept the books for her husband Arnie at A & O's Mirror Service in Montezuma. She then worked for Arnie's Auto Sales near Montezuma for several years. Patti enjoyed family and friends enjoyed playing games with her and children playing in the yard. Games in cards with them. Her favorite card games were bridge and solitaire. She spent many hours playing. She also enjoyed the many Saturday nights she was able to spend with her son, Kenny shopping and going out to dinner. Patti was a avid reader and loved solving crossword puzzles and jigsaw puzzles. She was very proud of her yard and spent many hours taking care of her yard, garden, and flower garden. She also enjoyed bowling and was on several different bowling teams over the years. She also helped with a Cub Scouts where she was a Den Mother and a Cub Scout Leader.

Her legacy will be honored by her husband of nearly 60 years, Arnie Craver of Montezuma; her two sons, Jordan (Brenda) Craver of Newton and Kenneth Craver of Griffin; two grandchildren, Jared Craver and Jason Craver; her brother, Robert Jordan and a sister in infancy, Judith Jordan.
