Brooklyn man dies in single-vehicle accident

Rollover cause of wreck on Interstate 80 early Sunday morning

A Brooklyn man was killed in an automobile accident early Sunday morning, May 3, in Iowa County on May 3, 2015.

In a report filed by the Iowa State Patrol (ISP), Bryant Keith Westfall, 35, was travelling westbound on Interstate 80 when at the 219 mile marker, he lost control of the 2001 Dodge truck at about 1 a.m. and entered the north ditch where the vehicle struck a large fence and fence post.

According to the ISP, the truck, driven by Westfall, rolled several times coming to rest in the north ditch.

Westfall was pronounced dead at the scene according to the ISP and was transported to the Kolsterman Funeral Home.

The ISP was assisted by the Iowa County Sheriff's Office and the Iowa County EMS.
