

CH-R
12-16-2019

Camiel Joseph Dhooge III

Camiel Dhooge (aka Cam, Camie, Camilo) died June 19, 2019, near the village of Mfuwe in Zambia. He was 44 years old. He is survived by his wife Karlyn Langjahr, his daughter Payton Dhooge, his parents Camiel and Lucia Dhooge, his brothers Mac and Achiel Dhooge, and their families.

Family and friends invite everyone to celebrate Cam's life at a "CAMboree" to be held Saturday, January 4, 2020, from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. at the Michael J. Manatt Community Center in Brooklyn, Iowa. One of Cam's favorite sayings was "my dad has a sweet tooth but I have sweet teeth." Left to his own choices, and despite his lifelong lean physique, he would invariably eat cake.

CAMBoree attendees should be aware that the menu will be centered on cakes. Think sugar overload.

Cam approached everything he did with an artistic and mechanical eye; his creativity helped those around him to view their world from new perspectives. His unique spirit will be honored through visual arts and music. The local community choir, Bear Creek Singers, will perform Queen's Bohemian Rhapsody, a family favorite, at 3:00.

The public is invited to the CAMboree. The event will celebrate Cam's one-of-a-kind life as well as the local community that nurtured him in his early years and provides unlimited support to his family today.