Mavrick was born October 13, 2017, at Ft. Bragg, N.C. He was the son of Nathan G. and Jade Marie (Crandall) Daniels. Even at his very young age, Mavrick showed an adept gift of music, most especially drumming, which lead to a friendship with renowned professional drummer Travis Barker. He loved to sing, and could sing (with choreography) all the verses of "The Wheels on the Bus." He loved that song because he was absolutely crazy about buses. Mavrick was a dapper dresser, most especially with his shoes. Brave and fearless, Mavrick took a shine to all animals with whom he connected. Last October was an especially joyous time, as Mavrick and his family traveled to Disney World.

Those who will cherish Mavrick in their hearts include his parents, Jade & Nathan Daniels of Raleigh, N.C.; Mavrick's grandparents, Patty & Russ Daniels of Biggsville, Ill., Olicia & Patrick Smothers of Montezuma, Tyson Crandall & Holly Windelow of Ames, and Sheryl & Eugene Heater of Mt. Pleasant; and his great grandparents, Jody Bishop of Biggsville, Larry & Kathy Daniels of Fair Play, Mo., Faith Shadden of Grinnell, Cheryl & Mike Crandall of Hampton, Brenda Hartshorn of New Windsor, Ill., and Pat Smothers of Montezuma. Mavrick also has one surviving great-great grandmother, Gloria Lawler of Ft. Dodge.

Those preceding Mavrick in death include three great grandfathers: Rick Bishop, Walt Hartshorn and Jackie Smothers.
