Phyllis Colleen DeHoedt, the daughter of Charles William and Della Thelma (Smith) Moore, was born on Jan. 28, 1940 in New Sharon. She attended country school through the eighth grade, earning her high school diploma through correspondence with the University of Chicago and attended Indian Hills Community College. On Apr. 9, 1962, Colleen was united in marriage to Wayne Arthur "Duke" DeHoedt at the St. Joseph's Parsonage in Oskaloosa. To this union two children were born, James Duke "JD" and Jacqueline Danett. Colleen worked at the New Sharon Care Center, Sig Manufacturing and the Mahaska County Hospital from 1981 retiring in 2001.

Colleen will be remembered as a kind and thoughtful wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She always had a smile and positive outlook. She loved spending time with family especially her grandchildren. Some of her favorite times were simply helping her neighbor, Jamie; quilting days with Helen and Sue, picking berries with Wilma, gardening and baking.

Her legacy will be honored by her husband of 58 years, Duke DeHoedt of Barnes City; her children, JD (Linda) DeHoedt, of Lynnville and Jacki (John) Mobley of Jefferson; her grandchildren, Spencer (Haley) DeHoedt, Randa DeHoedt, Garrett (Jade) DeHoedt, Jacob DeHoedt, Jasmine Mobley and John Mobley IV and her great grandson, Adler Duke DeHoedt. She is also survived by her brothers, Marvin Moore and Don Moore; her sister, June Den Hartog; her sisters-in-law, Helen DeHoedt and Hilda Moore and several nieces, nephews and friends.

Colleen was preceded in death by her parents, Charles & Della Moore; siblings, Laverna Nelson, Joyce Eakins, Viola Lamb, Harold Moore, Jim Moore, Carolyn Thompson; in-laws, Jack Nelson, Gene Eakins, Bob & Aleta DeHoedt, Scott DeHoedt and Lee & Joan DeHoedt.
