A graveside Celebration of Life for David G. "Dave" McCurry, 69, of Coralville and Naples, Fla., was held Monday, Aug. 17, at Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell. In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund has been established for Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center and Naples Children and Education Foundation.

David McCurry died Thursday, Aug. 13, at his home in Coralville. David Gene McCurry was born Feb. 23, 1951, in Grinnell, the son of Gene H. and Joan L. (Oltrogge) McCurry. He graduated from Grinnell High School in 1969, Iowa State University and the University of Iowa. Dave played football and ran track for Iowa State and was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1973, playing in the NFL for two years. He went on to coach multiple sports and teach at UNI, the University of Iowa, Cornell College and Williamsburg, Washington Alternative School, Montezuma and Iowa City high schools. Dave especially enjoyed teaching special education students. Dave was united in marriage to Terri Connor in 1973; the couple later divorced. On July 18, 1980, he was married to Susan Holden in Williamsburg. Dave was a trustee of the Naples Children and Education Foundation and an avid supporter of Iowa State University. He enjoyed ISU football, the Chicago Cubs, fishing, golfing, acting and singing with the Naples Players, playing basketball into his 60s, and spending time with his family and friends. Survivors include his wife, Susan, of Naples, FL.; three children, Jennifer McCurry of Naples, Joseph McCurry of Naples and Svetlana McCurry of Fayette; two grandchildren, Myles and Cooper McCurry of Naples; guardian son, Brynjar (Kim) Brynjarsson and family of Marshalltown; his sister, Jody (Jon) Knapp of Fountain Hills, AZ.; his brother, Kirk McCurry and family of Grinnell.; brother-in-law, Ronald (Arlene) Holden of Williamsburg; and sister-in-law, Karol Holden of Rancho Santa Fe, CA. Preceding David in death were his parents, Gene and Joan McCurry; and his father- and mother-in-law, Roland and Ruby Holden.
