James Cloyd Reams 6-1-2020

James C. Reams, of Brooklyn, Iowa, died May 2, 2020.

He was born on September 26, 1940, outside of Brooklyn, Iowa, to Cloyd and Edna Reams. James enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1963 and served in Vietnam.

James had a profession as an HVAC technician and worked at Banner Furnace & Fuel until he retired in 2001. He faithfully served the Lord Jesus Christ as an elder and speaker at their chapel, counseling numerous people, and lived a life dedicated to helping others, through prison ministry, sharing the Gospel at shelters and nursing homes, through street ministry and mission trips to Louisiana after Hurricane Katrina, and also to Zimbabwe. He faithfully volunteered at various youth camps in Washington, British Columbia, Arizona and California over the years.

James loved the outdoors, whether it be cross country skiing, camping, jogging or especially riding his bicycle along the Centennial Trail all over Spokane and Idaho. Riding across Iowa with his brother in RAGBRAI was also an unforgettable experience.

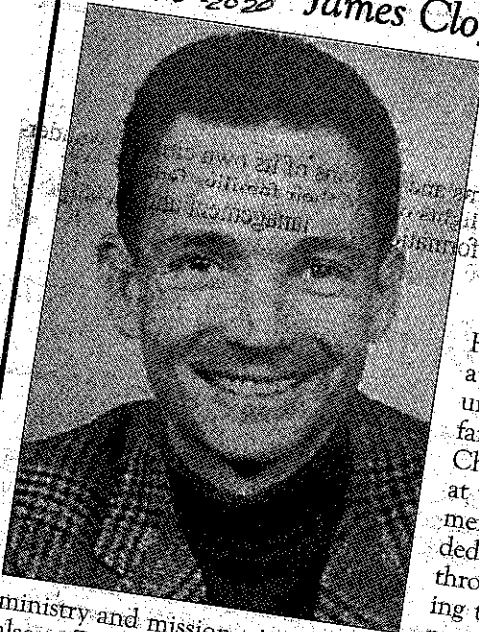

James is survived by his wife Betty Morrison Reams, whom he married in March of 1965. They have three daughters Stacy, Robyn and Paula; and nine grandchildren. James also leaves a brother, Stephen and Joyce of Montezuma, Iowa. Also survived by his close buddies Gene, Doyle, Marvin, Paul, and Clyde.

James is preceded in death by his parents.
