Gary Lee Walter was born on Oct. 17, 1952 to Robert and Delores (Duncan) Walter. He grew up on a farm outside of Guernsey Ia and attended BGM schools in Brooklyn until his junior year. Gary decided in 2008 to attend Iowa Valley Continuing Education to get his GED. He was the oldest recipient to receive the GED in IVCE history. He drove truck for 30+ years and had multiple construction jobs throughout the years. He loved to play cards, fish, hunt and was an avid NASCAR fan which lead him to name his rescue dog after his favorite driver, Rusty Wallace. Most of all, Gary loved to spend time with his daughter and granddaughters.
