Steven Wayne Vossberg was born March 29, 1956, the son of Wayne and Olive (Laughery) Vossberg in Waverly.

He was graduated from Plainfield High School in 1975. On July 2, 1976, he was united in marriage to Susan Koob in Nashua, Iowa. Steve started his railroad career in Plainfield for the Illinois Central Railroad. Steve retired from the CN Railroad after 40 years. He enjoyed his retirement and was known to say that "everyday is Saturday". After Sue retired, the couple moved to Lake Ponderosa and enjoyed making many memories at the lake with family and friends. Steve loved being with his family especially his four grandsons, taking them tubing, skiing, building campfires and teaching them to fish.

He is survived by his wife of 44 years Sue; son Derek (Amanda) Vossberg of Altoona; daughter Trisha (Luke) Buhrow of Urbandale; four grandsons Owen and Tyler Vossberg and Isaac and Dominic Buhrow; two sisters Marilyn (Terry) Norton of Clarksville, Deb (Ed) Willert of Shell Rock; three brothers Doug (Patti) Vossberg of Kasson, Minnesota, Ken Vossberg (friend Marilee) of Waverly, Richard (Mary) Vossberg of Lake View. Many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother Keith Vossberg, sister-in-law Jodi Vossberg and a granddaughter Grace Vossberg.
