

Leonard E. Arment

Leonard E. Arment, 85, of Fort Collins, Colo., died Saturday, Jan. 27, 2007.

A funeral service was held Wednesday, Jan. 31, at Bohlender Funeral Chapel in Fort Collins with interment with full military honors following in Resthaven Memory Gardens Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Disabled American Veterans.

He was born Sept. 19, 1921, in Poweshiek County, Iowa, to Harold and Verna Wood Arment. During World War II he served in the United States Army Air Corps, landing in Normandy on D+6. He drove semi-trailers throughout France, Belgium and Germany while participating in the Red Ball Express and earning five battle stars as well as other commendations. He was married to Veda E. Jordan on May 28, 1940, in Grinnell. In 1953 they moved with their family to Fort Collins, where he served for 27 years as a bridge supervisor, supervising the construction of bridges throughout Larimer County. He was a member of the American Baptist Church, the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans for 60 years.

He is survived by three sons, Keith L. Arment of El Cajon, Calif. and Patrick L. Arment and Max L. Arment of Bellvue, Colo.; three grandchildren and six great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife Veda; a brother, Raymond Arment, one son Robert Lee Arment, one granddaughter and a great grandson.

GH- Feb 1, 2007