

DF- sep 13, 2006

Elotia Beyer, 76, of Sully

Elotia Beyer, 76, of Sully passed away Sept. 6, 2006. Funeral services were held Sept. 9, at the First Reformed Church in Sully. Memorials can be given to Hospice of Pella.

E. Beyer

Elotia Lucille Myers Beyer, daughter of Russell and Edna (Merck) Myers, was born Feb. 28, 1930, near Victor.

On May 29, 1950, Elotia was united in marriage with Charly Beyer at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. Charly and Elotia raised four children: Loren, Steven, Lynda and Jackie. The family lived near Victor and Lynnville prior to moving to Sully 13 years ago.

Elotia graduated from Victor High School and attended Iowa Teachers College. She taught in a country school for three years. She and her husband had been members of the Taintor United Methodist Church and currently were members of the First Reformed Church in Sully. She was the founder and member of JUN (Just Us Neighbors) for over 40 years.

Those left to cherish her memory are: her husband of 56 years, Charly; her four children: Loren Beyer of Lynnville, Steven Beyer and his wife Jocelyn of Sully, Lynda and her husband Carroll Miller of Prairie City, and Jackie Heppe of Marion; nine grandchildren: Deanna Greene, Shaun Greene, Tim Greene, Travis Miller, Chad Beyer, Angela Beyer, Jamie Beyer, Kristal Beyer, Stephanie Heppe, and Jacob Young; and one sister, Lucille Kern of Ladora.

Preceding her in death were her parents, grandparents, and granddaughter, Jennifer Greene.