

Orlin F. Border, 91

Funeral services for Orlin F. Border, 91, Nampa, Idaho, formerly of Marengo, were held Monday, June 5, at Cloverdale Funeral Home, Boise, Idaho. He died May 31, 2006, at Trinity Mission of Holly, Nampa, where he had been living for the last year.

Burial was in Terrace Lawn Memorial Gardens, Boise.

Orlin Frederick Border was born Oct. 22, 1914, in Marengo, the son of Clarence Elmer Border and Emma Marie Hadenfeldt. He graduated from Victor High School in 1933. Shortly after graduation, he moved to California, where he learned the plumbing trade.

While there, he met and married Helen Ruth Hardy. He followed the plumbing trade all of his working life. He worked for others and eventually started his own business. He ended his career by becoming an Idaho state plumbing inspector.

He was a kind and loving man and will be missed by all who knew him. His last trip to Iowa was in 1997 to visit relatives and old classmates.

Border is survived by his daughter and her husband, Kathie and Jim Kline, Row-lins, Wyo.; one son, Jim Border, Nampa; five grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Audrey, in 2003, and Elmer, in 1985, and his wife, Dec. 28, 1996.
