

Velma James, 86

Velma James, 86, of Montezuma, went home to Heaven on Friday, July 7, 2006, at Montezuma Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, July 10, at the Calvary Baptist Church in Grinnell with Pastor Don Johnston officiating. Organist was Teresa Thompson and vocalist was Jarold Greene. Pallbearers will be Kenneth James, Brent and Skyler Romberg, Dave Story, Eric Bru and Norman Meyer. Burial was in the Little Mount Baptist Cemetery near Montezuma.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Velma James Memorial Fund.

The daughter of Robert and Ethel Hulbert Revell, she was born February 12, 1920, in Iowa Center. She was raised in Grinnell and was a 1939 graduate of Grinnell High School where she also received her teaching certificate. She taught in rural schools in Union Township near Montezuma from 1939 to 1943.

On December 28, 1942, she was married to Warren L. James, in Fresno, Calif., where he was stationed in the military prior to going overseas. After World War II, the couple moved to their family farm near Montezuma and farmed there until 1968. They then moved to What Cheer, and later moved to Montezuma in 1985. During this time she assisted her husband, who was a Baptist minister in the What Cheer and Montezuma communities.

Velma was an active member of the Baptist Church and had taught Sunday school for 45 years. She was charter member of the Montezuma Garden Club and a charter member and co-founder of the Poweshiek County Historical and Genealogy Society.

Survivors include one son, Lauren James; two grandchildren, Kenneth (Wendi) James, and Kristina (Brent) Romberg; three great-grandchildren, Destiny and Skyler Romberg, and Tesla Sparks, all of Montezuma; and two sisters, Ada Johnson of Montezuma, and Ethel Taylor of Port Orange, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Warren; her parents; and one brother, Robert Revell, Jr.

Re JUL 12, 2006

Velma James, 86, Montezuma

Velma James, 86, of Montezuma, passed away July 7, 2006. Funeral services were held July 10, at the Calvary Baptist Church in Grinnell.

Pallbearers were Kenneth James, Brent and Skyler Romberg, Dave Story, Eric Bru and Norman Meyer.

Burial V. James was held in the Little Mount Baptist Cemetery near Montezuma. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Velma James Memorial Fund.

The daughter of Robert and Ethel Hulbert Revell, she was born Feb. 12, 1920, in Iowa Center. She was raised in Grinnell and was a 1939 graduate of Grinnell High School where she also received her teaching certificate. She taught in rural schools in Union Township near Montezuma from 1939 to 1943.

On Dec. 28, 1942, she was married to Warren L. James, in Fresno, California, where he was stationed in the military prior to going overseas. After World War II, the couple moved to their family farm near Montezuma and farmed there until 1968. They then moved to What Cheer and later moved to Montezuma in 1985. During this time she assisted her husband, who was a Baptist minister in the What Cheer and Montezuma communities.

Velma was an active member of the Baptist Church and had taught Sunday school for 45 years. She was charter member of the Montezuma Garden Club and a charter member and co-founder of the Poweshiek County Historical and Genealogy Society.

Survivors include one son, Lauren James, two grandchildren, Kenneth (Wendi) James and Kristina (Brent) Romberg, three great-grandchildren, Destiny and Skyler Romberg and Tesla Sparks, all of Montezuma; and two sisters, Ada Johnson of Montezuma and Ethel Taylor of Port Orange, Florida. She was preceded in death by her husband, Warren; her parents; and one brother, Robert Revell, Jr.

Velma James, 86

Velma James, 86, of Montezuma, went home to Heaven on Friday, July 7, 2006, at Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

Her funeral service was held on Monday, July 10, at the Calvary Baptist Church, Grinnell, with Pastor Don Johnston officiating. The organist was Teresa Thompson and the vocalist was Jarold Greene. Burial was at the Little Mount Baptist Cemetery near Montezuma. Smith Funeral Home, Grinnell, was in charge of the arrangements.

Pallbearers were Kenneth James, Brent and Skyler Romberg, Dave Story, Eric Bru and Norman Meyer.

The daughter of Robert and Ethel Hulbert Revell, she was born Feb. 12, 1920, at Iowa Center. She was raised in Grinnell and was a 1939 graduate of Grinnell High School where she also received her teaching certificate. She taught in rural schools in Union Township near Montezuma from 1939 to 1943.

On Dec. 28, 1942, she was married to Warren L. James at Fresno, Calif., where he was stationed in the military prior to going overseas. After World War II, the couple moved to their family farm near Montezuma and farmed there until 1968. They then moved to What Cheer and later moved to Montezuma in 1985. During this time she assisted her husband, who was a Baptist minister in the What Cheer and Montezuma communities.

Velma was an active member of the Baptist Church and taught Sunday school for 45 years. She was a charter member of the Montezuma Garden Club and a charter member and co-founder of the Poweshiek County Historical and Genealogy Society.

Survivors include one son, Lauren James; two grandchildren, Kenneth (and Wendi) James and Kristina (and Brent) Romberg; three great-grandchildren, Destiny and Skyler Romberg and Tesla Sparks, all of Montezuma; and two sisters, Ada Johnson of Montezuma and Ethel Taylor of Port Orange, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Warren, and one brother, Robert Revell, Jr.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Velma James Memorial Fund.

Velma James

Velma James, 86, of Montezuma died Friday, July 7, at Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

Funeral services for Velma James were held at 10:30 a.m. today (Monday) at the Calvary Baptist Church in Grinnell with Pastor Don Johnston officiating. Organist was Teresa Thompson, vocalist Jarold Greene. Pallbearers included Kenneth James, Brent and Skyler Romberg, Dave Story, Eric Bru and Norman Meyer. Burial was in Little Mount Baptist Cemetery near Montezuma.

The daughter of Robert and Ethel Hulbert Revell, she was born Feb. 12, 1920, in Iowa Center. She was raised in Grinnell and was a 1939 grad of Grinnell High School, where she also received her teaching certificate. She taught in rural schools in Union Township near Montezuma from 1939 to 1943.

On Dec. 28, 1942, she married Warren L. James in Fresno, Calif., where he was stationed in the military prior to going overseas. After World War II, the couple moved to the family farm near Montezuma and farmed there till 1968. They moved to What Cheer and, in 1985, to Montezuma. She assisted her husband, who was a Baptist minister, in the What Cheer and Montezuma communities.

She was an active member of the Baptist church and taught Sunday school for 45 years. She was a charter member of the Montezuma Garden Club and a charter member and co-founder of the Poweshiek County Historical and Genealogical Society.

She is survived by a son, Lauren, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, all of Montezuma; and two sisters, Ada Johnson of Montezuma and Ethel Taylor of Port Orange, Fla. She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and a brother, Robert Revell Jr.