

William M. Kinnamon, 93

William M. Kinnamon, 93, of Iowa City and a resident of Parkview Manor, Wellman, died Monday, May 8, 2006, at Mercy Hospital following a brief illness.

A family graveside service will be held Thursday, May 11 at Oakland Cemetery. Memorials may be directed to Mercy Hospital Foundation or Reflections/ Parkview Manor, Wellman. Arrangements are with Lensing Funeral and Cremation Service.

Bill was born November 6, 1912, in Dayton, the son of Mac A. and Edith R. Lyman Kinnamon. He was raised in Brooklyn, where he graduated from high school and had been active in sports. Bill attended Iowa State University.

Bill joined the Civil Conservation Corps, where he worked prior to joining and serving in the US Navy as a naval officer during World War II. Following his military service he joined his father in business in Cresco, Iowa, where they operated a service station and automobile dealership.

Bill married Lucille B. Johnson on January 25, 1937, in Waukon.

Bill went on to a lifetime career as a quality control inspector for the Army Material Command. Upon retirement at age-62, Bill and Lucille moved to Iowa City from Joliet, Ill., where he enjoyed 31 years of retirement.

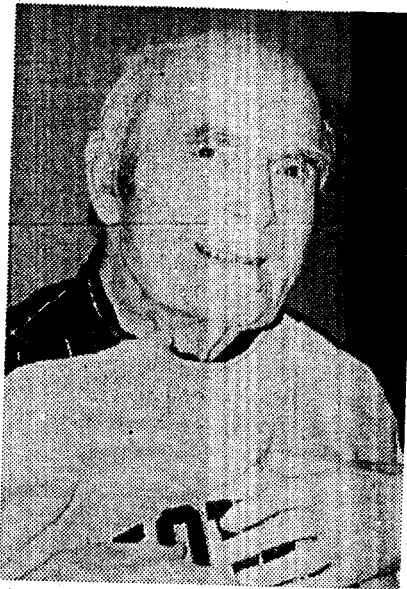

Bill is survived by his three children, Jerald W. Kinnamon and his life partner, Sondra B. Kaska, Jon M. Kinnamon, and Judith A. Kinnamon, all of Iowa City; his sister, Edith K. Anderson of Rochester, Minn.; his sister-in-law, Ruthe Kinnamon of Paso Robles, Calif.; and his niece, Katherine A. Sewell of Edina, Minn.

Bill was preceded in death by his wife, Lucille B.; his son, James C.; and two brothers, Lawrence L. and George L.

Be
may 17, 2006

William M. Kinnamon

William M. Kinnamon, 93, of Iowa City, also a resident of Parkview Manor in Wellman, formerly of Brooklyn, died Monday, May 8, 2006, at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City following a brief illness.

A family graveside service was held Thursday at Oakland Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Mercy Hospital Foundation or to Reflections/Parkview Manor, Wellman. Lensing Funeral and Cremation Service in Iowa City was in charge of arrangements.

He was born Nov. 6, 1912, in Dayton, the son of Mac A. and Edith R. Lyman Kinnamon. He was raised in Brooklyn where he graduated from high school and was active in sports. He attended Iowa State University in Ames, then joined the Civilian Conservation Corps prior to serving as an officer in the United States Navy during World War II. Following his discharge he joined his father in operating a service station and automotive dealership in Cresco. He was married on Jan. 25, 1937, in Waukon to Lucille B. Johnson. He then began a lifetime career as a quality-control inspector for the Army Material Command. Upon his retirement at age 62, the couple moved from Joliet, Ill., to Iowa City where he spent 31 years in retirement.

He is survived by two sons, Jerald W. Kinnamon and Jon M. Kinnamon, and one daughter Judith A. Kinnamon, all of Iowa City; and one sister Edith K. Anderson of Rochester, Minn. He was preceded in death by his wife; one son James C. and two brothers, Lawrence L. and George L. Kinnamon.