

Verla M. Robertson

Verla M. Robertson, 92, of Grinnell died Thursday, June 22, 2006 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

A funeral service will be held Tuesday, June 27, at 10:30 a.m. at New Hope United Methodist Church in Muscatine with the Rev. Richard Sebeniecher officiating. Casket bearers will be Mark Simpson, Terry Simpson, Scot Robertson, B. J. Alloway, Tyler Simpson, Devin Robertson and Cameron Simpson. Interment will take place in Greenwood Cemetery. Following interment a time of food and fellowship will take place at the church. Memorials may be made to New Hope United Methodist Church. Sympathy notes may be left for her family at www.lewisfuneralhomes.com.

She was born March 29, 1914, in Muscatine, the daughter of Oscar Leon and Maude Pearl Meeker Chapman. She attended Muscatine schools and later worked at the Hawkeye Button Company, also known as the Weber Button Company, where she sorted buttons. She was united in marriage with Earl Barnett Robertson in Muscatine on Sept. 4, 1932. She was a member of New Hope United Methodist Church in which she was very active, achieving many years of perfect attendance and membership in its Bible study group.

She is survived by one son Larry Robertson of Grinnell; five grandchildren; ten great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one daughter Pat Dilts, one granddaughter, three brothers and two sisters.

92 JUN 22 2006