

Perry D. Schold

Perry D. Schold, 53, of Grinnell died Sunday, Dec. 3, 2006, at his home.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 13, at the Smith Funeral home in Grinnell, with the Rev. John Epperson, pastor of the Grinnell Christian Church, officiating. Pianist will be the Rev. Jim Turner.

Born May 2, 1953, in Glendale Calif., he was the son of Richard Donald Schold and Jane Unger Flowers. He was raised in San Diego and attended Madison High School there. He was a U.S. Army veteran.

After his military service, he worked for several electronics businesses, including Elgar Electronics in San Diego. He moved to Grinnell in 1982 and worked at Varsity Newsstand for five years. He later worked at various other jobs. Most recently, he helped with the transportation of friends and fellow Station Clubhouse members as they made appointments and ran errands.

On May 5, 2005, he married Dorothy E Sugden in Grinnell.

He was a member of the Grinnell Christian Church. He was also a member of the Station Clubhouse since its inception in 1990. He was a former member of the United Methodist Church and the Eagles Lodge.

He is survived by his wife; his mother and stepfather, Jane and James Flowers of Camp Verde, Ariz.; two brothers Mike Schold of San Diego and Dale Schold of Camp Verde; and two sisters, Wendy Acosia of San Diego and Tamra Scanlan of Portland, Ore. He was preceded in death by his father and stepmother, Richard and Gloria Schold, and his grandparents.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Perry D. Schold Memorial Fund.
