

Juanita F. See, 63

Juanita Faye See, 63, died on Thursday, Jan. 4, 2007, at the Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Her graveside service was held Monday, Jan. 8, at Westfield Cemetery near Grinnell with Pastor John Epperson officiating. Watts Funeral Home of Montezuma was in charge of the arrangements.

Juanita, the daughter of Eddie Fields and Lola Fern Clark, was born on Aug. 2, 1943, in Ohio. She graduated from Montezuma High School. On Oct. 6, 1963, Juanita was united in marriage with Marion See at Montezuma. She had worked for the Grinnell Regional Medical Center in the X-ray and emergency room departments. She then went on to work for St. Francis Manor, Grinnell, for 17 years as a medical aide.

Juanita loved her family. She enjoyed gardening and working with her flowers. A good puzzle book could always be found close by. She loved to be in the outdoors camping, fishing, barbecuing, and feeding her finch and hummingbirds.

Those left to honor Juanita's memory include her husband, Marion See of Malcom; her son, James and Judie See of Oskaloosa; her daughter, Marsha and Scott Marchant of Malcom; her five grandchildren, Jenifer, Leesa, Jimmy, Stephanie and Kellie; her great-granddaughter, Akasha; her brothers, Edwin and Eula Fields of Missouri; Don and Sandy Field of Brighton and her sister, Iona and John Weld of Fairfax.

Juanita was preceded in death by her parents.

Memorials may be designated to the Juvenile Diabetes Association.
