

DT - March 29, 2006

Floyd Stepp, 90, Grinnell

Floyd Stepp, 90, of Grinnell passed away March 25, 2006. Graveside services were held March 28, at Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg with Rev. Jeff Lee, pastor of the Lynnville Friends Church, officiating. Casket bearers were grandchildren: Scott Stepp, Stacy Cook, Michael Terpstra, Thomas Terpstra and Stephanie Henning. Memorials can be given to the Kellogg Fire Department or to the Kellogg Historical Society.

F. Stepp

Floyd was born July 7, 1915, in Monticello, Kentucky to Aught and Mollie Delk Stepp. The family moved to Kellogg where he attended rural school.

On June 19, 1937, he was married to Wanda Hill in Newton. The couple lived in Grinnell and later moved to Kellogg, where he worked for the Midwest Manufacturing Company as a die setter for over 40 years. He retired in 1980 and moved to St. Francis Manor in Grinnell in 2003.

Floyd was a member of the Kellogg Volunteer Fire Department and the United Molders Union.

He is survived by one son, Gordon (Bev) Stepp of Grinnell; one daughter, Fontella (Wilbur) Terpstra of Lynnville; five grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and one sister, Flonnie Matherly of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; one son, Richard Stepp, who died in infancy; one brother, Menvil Stepp; and three sisters: Maggie Foster, Pearl Clifton and Della Stepp.