

Margaret M. Tolbert, 82

Margaret M. Tolbert, 82, of Victor, died on Sunday, Jan. 28, 2007, at the Northbrook Care Center in Cedar Rapids following a lengthy illness.

A memorial service was held at 7 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 2, at the Smith Funeral Home in Victor with Rev. Jim Davis, pastor of the New Covenant-United Methodist Church of Victor, officiating. Pianist was Colleen Van Zee. Burial will be in the Immanuel Cemetery at a later date.

Memorials may be directed to either the Victor United Methodist Church or to the American Legion Auxiliary of Victor and sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, 808 Fourth St., Victor, IA 52347.

Margaret was born on March 18, 1924 in Warren Township near Victor to John and Marie Ueltzen Walton. She was raised in Victor and graduated from Victor High School.

She was married to John Bulten and the couple lived in Cedar Falls. Following the couple's divorce, she moved to Victor. She worked in the food service department of the HLV School system and at the former Maid Rite in Victor. On March 31, 1956 she was married to Robert L. Tolbert in Princeton, Ill.

While living in Victor, she was a member of the New Covenant-Victor United Methodist Church, the Order of Eastern Star and the Victor American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include two sons, John (Pat) Bulten of Alburnett, and Mark Tolbert of Victor; and three grandsons, Tod Bulten of Carbondale, Ill., Trevor Bulten of Bettendorf, and Troy Bulten of Pensacola, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; one daughter, Mary Kay Bars; and one brother, Marvin Walton.
