Marcia E. Wilson, 87, of Deep River, died Sunday, Dec. 31, 2006 at the Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

Her funeral service was held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 3, at the Harden Funeral Chapel in What Cheer with the Rev. Esther Brown officiating. Interment followed at the White Oak Church Cemetery near Thornburg.

Marcia was born on Dec. 13, 1919, northeast of Thornburg, the daughter of E.M. and Dora Higgins Wilson. She spent her childhood on the family farm and in 1968 went to the Commission for the Blind in Des Moines.

In Des Moines Marcia worked at the Capitol Building cafeteria. In 1975 she returned to the family farm and remained there until she moved to Deep River in 1982. Marcia's enjoyments included gardening, knitting, crocheting, and cooking. She was a member of the Deep River Church of the Nazarene.

Marcia's memory is honored by her brother, Homer Wilson of Thornburg; a nephew, Keith M. Wilson of Marengo; and her church family at the Nazarene.

She was preceded in death by a nephew, James Paul Wilson, and a sister-in-law.

A memorial has been established for the Deep River Nazarene Church.
