Carol Ann Davis, the daughter of Warner "Huck" and Mary (Ratliff) Wagaman, was born April 18, 1949, in Oskaloosa. She was graduated from Lynnville-Sully High School in 1967. Carol excelled in basketball at Lynnville-Sully and started all four years.

Carol received her bachelor's degree in Education from Drake University. On August 22, 1970.

She was united in marriage to Don Davis at the Lynnville Friends Church. To this union one son was born, Scott. Carol began student teaching at North High School before teaching shorthand, typing and business classes at East High School in Des Moines for seven years. They moved to Coral Springs, Florida in 1984 and purchased a printing company which she ran for five years before finding her passion of decorating and event planning. While her husband Don pursued a business venture in Denver, CO, Carol was very creative and had an eye and talent for design. She loved staying busy and always had a house project to work on. She was an avid golfer and enjoyed playing Mahjong and looking for treasures with Michael. Carol was extremely involved with her son, Scott, and all his friends who refer to her as their second mom.

Ever since her granddaughter, Mia, was born she has been Carol's life. Carol and Mia shared an unbreakable bond. She devoted her time to Mia's activities and spending time with her. Carol also enjoyed cooking big Sunday meals for her chosen family. Carol's legacy will be honored by her husband of 50 years, Don Davis of Clive; her son, Scott (Kindra) Davis of Waukee; her loving granddaughter, Mia Davis of Waukee; cousins, Lori (Dave) Herring of Boston and Deb Eckler of Indianapolis. She was preceded in death by her parents.
