Fenton Hanselman, 62 of New Sharon passed away July 26, at his home in New Sharon. Memorial services were July 30, at Holland-Coble Funeral Home.

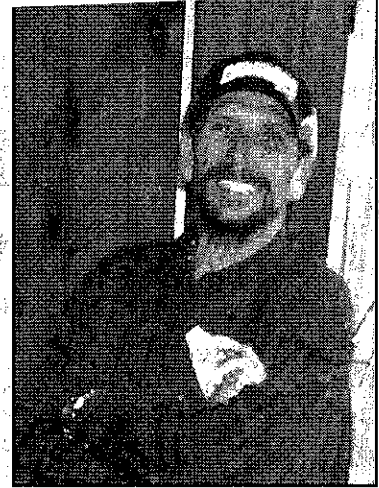

Fenton Harold Hanselman, son of Jerrold and Norma (Carpenter) Hanselman, was born July 5, 1959 in Oskaaloosa. He grew up in New Sharon, with his two older brothers, Mark and Dave, and younger sister Lea.

He attended North Mahaska elementary and high school where he participated in football and wrestling.

Following his schooling, he married Cyndy Wiley. During their marriage they had three daughters: Miranda, Anna, and Alexis. He worked many different jobs including a meat packing plant in Tama, built grain bins for Randy DeWitt, a variety of construction trades including helping to build the YMCA in Newton, Clow Valve, the City of New Sharon, and Plate Electronics where he met and made life long friends. He was also a volunteer firefighter for the City of New Sharon for many years. In addition to a very hard work ethic, he volunteered on many of his daughter's Little League teams. He could often be seen in the back yard helping on pitching stances and batting swings.

He loved fishing, even if he only caught the trees or fed the fish. It was a fun, relaxing experience he shared with his daughters. He could always be seen around town with one of his girls or all of them in the truck with him, checking on the pump house, going to his office, or doing donuts every place he could think of in the winter or taking them on the "fun" hills.

Fenton was a lover of many things including jar collecting, rock/fossil/arrowhead collecting, mushroom hunting, taking photos of sunsets, anything outdoor related and above all music (He truly will be remembered as a one-of-a-kind person who never followed the beaten path, but rather made his own. He taught everyone around him to be themselves and love one another for our differences.

He is survived by his 3 daughters, 7 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren. Miranda (Josh) Johnson and their daughters: Agustis and Paisley of Kirksville, Iowa; Anna (Pete) Panada and their daughters: Cheyenne, Cherise, and Joey of Newton, Alexis (Jake) Beck and their children: Wiley and Brooke of Preston. He was a wonderful father and grandfather, a great grandfather.
